The year is 2003.

Two ordinary dudes, below average in height, with a pocket full of cash (all in $1's) and a whale of a dream decided that 17 years of slingin' tacos & tequila together should be turned into a lifelong gig. The idea was to build a better mousetrap or, in this case, a better Sonoran-style Mexican Restaurant – a place with food to remember, where different was good. So, Fernando and Tim called in all favors AND, with the help of the Larson Family, made their dreams come true & opened up Nando's Mexican Café ("Store One") in Gilbert, AZ.

From the traditional family recipes shared with Nando by both his stepdad, Alfred (may he rest in peace and tacos), and his Mom (Nana), to the design of the restaurant – Nando's has strived for nearly 17 years to become your local family joint. To this day, many of our original Nando's employees remain with us and have become "Our Nando's Family" – truly making Family Our Main Ingredient.

The year is 2009. The two nut jobs decide to open a second restaurant during the biggest recession since the Great Depression. Brilliant thinking. They bring in Sean – a taller, skinny white dude with a knack for numbers and a talent for pacing, to open the infamous "Store Two" in Mesa, AZ.

Luckily, by providing a product with "a bang for your buck" and with countless prayers, they were able to make it through the tough times and Sean, the numbers guy, managed to show these two ordinary dudes they could open up "Store Three" in Chandler, AZ in 2012.

After convincing the entire staff they love to put miles on their vehicles and drive in circles, they decided to add "Store Four" – out towards the state line...also known in the present day as Queen Creek, AZ.

The year is 2020.

Our Story – started nearly 17 years ago with a No. 2 Ticonderoga and is finally being completed with an iPhone 11. Technology has changed, but Nando's commitment to quality food and superior service in a comfortable atmosphere has remained the same.

Locally owned and operated (unless we sell), we want Nando's to be the restaurant your family visits to celebrate birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, and the like. We do everything possible to incorporate and support the local community, which is often. From our craft beer selection, tortillas, meats, and produce to fund raising and volunteering, we are always looking for more ways to support our local community!

In the words of long-time employee Roberto Garnica, "Thank you for your cooperation."
